The Communion Meditation Prayer said at mass:

God to whom we belong, we know that each person is of infinite worth to you, that you delight in all our colors, shapes & sizes, and that you dwell in the love that holds us together as your One Body. We must stand together as a community to overcome abortion in our nation. Each of us can make a difference: Strengthen us to be active participants in the fulfillment of your promise. We pray through Christ our Lord.
Amen

Newly Baptized

Congratulations to Nathan Morgan Gilkey, son of Mathew & Suzanne; baptized on Jan. 10th.

Blessing of New Drivers

Each new year we have a special blessing for those, who recently received their driver's license or who will seek it in the current year. On Jan. 30 & 31, after the homily, come forward to receive the Blessing and a picture of the Sacred Heart of Jesus to be placed in the car. We ask God to protect new drivers. If you would like a Sacred Heart picture for your car, call the parish office.
